Attorney Mr. Nathan J. Mays
Law Offices of Nathan J. Mays, P.C.

Mr. Nathan J. Mays graduated from Baylor University School of Law in 1997 and received his Texas Bar License the same year. Mr. Mays then worked for Harris County, Texas as an Assistant District Attorney for five years prosecuting thousands of cases during this time. He was the lead trial attorney in over eighty (80) jury trials. Mr. Mays also supervised or assisted in over one hundred additional jury trials as a prosecutor.

Mr. Mays left the District Attorney office in 2003 to enter private practice. Nathan's practice has focused exclusively on defending individuals charged with crimes in Federal and State court for over 17 years. Mr. Mays has tried over fifty (50) jury trials as a defense attorney and has represented over one thousand clients during his career. Mr. Mays has defended individuals charged in Federal Court in over 20 states, and has been admitted to practice in over twenty Federal Districts either pro hac vice or as a full member. Nathan has represented accused individuals in over one hundred and fifty (150) federal prosecutions or investigations.

Mr. Mays has defended individuals accused of white collar crimes such as Health Care Fraud, Illegal Gambling, RICO Conspiracy, Money Laundering, Wire Fraud, Bank Fraud, and Mail Fraud. He has also represented many individuals accused of controlled substance or drug crimes in both State and Federal Court including Conspiracy to Possess with Intent to Distribute a Controlled Substance, Possession of a Controlled Substance, and Distribution of a Controlled Substance. These cases have involved both 'street' drugs such as cocaine or marijuana as well as pharmaceuticals such as Human Growth Hormone and prescription medications. Mr. Mays is also recognized as an expert at defending Illegal gambling, gaming and sports betting allegations in both Federal and State Courts.
